Description

An Irish tall boy secretaire chest. This fine Irish country house estate secretaire chest is of typical Irish pattern. The 8 graduated drawer fronts with drawers (from the top) 3,4 &5 opening as a flat fall to reveal a fully fitted secretaire interior. The interior made up with a combination of pigeon holes and drawers. The central cupboard door revealing hidden drawers. The cornice with dentil moulding. Supported on original shaped bracket feet. The handles replaced in the 19th C but are nicely done & in period. Lovely condition, colour & patination & in that beautiful country house look.
