Description

This is an antique bow front tallboy. An English, mahogany and brass chest of drawers, dating to the Georgian period, circa 1780. Delightful bow front chest of four long drawers with beautiful figuring. Presenting a desirable aged patina and in good order. Select stocks present fine grain interest, accentuated with ebonised stringing. Rich caramel hues with warm highlights dance across the bowed form. Four graduated drawers at heights of 10cm to 17.5cm (4" to 7"). Dressed with distinctive drop handles, with a 'human eye' motif to the oval backplates. Inset brass-lined locks present on each fascia — untested, key absent. Upper drawer with a trio of divisions for better organisation. Standing upon a quartet of shaped bracket feet in the Sheraton manner. This is a wonderful antique bow front tallboy, with fine figuring and useful proportion. As good to use within a drawing room as it would be for the bedroom. Solid joints and construction, delivered ready for the home.
