Description

Fabulous Burmese Padouk carved harpist chair in excellent condition. It features an intricately carved backrest and apron, showcasing exceptional craftsmanship. The chair stands on elegantly sculpted legs that end in striking lion paw feet, adding to its regal appeal. The adjustable seat is upholstered in soft pink velvet, accentuated with a refined braided edge, adding a touch of luxury. Despite its antique character and minor imperfections typical of such pieces, this chair remains sturdy and boasts a rich, warm colour. It's not only functional but also a highly decorative piece that would make a statement in any setting. The seat height can be adjusted between 50cm and 58cm. It's a truly unique and exquisite find!
