Description

Our Stock # 25187 This is an antique toddy ladle. An English, silver and mahogany long serving spoon, dating to the Georgian period, hallmarked in 1813. Fascinating Georgian example, with tactile handle and appealing tonality. Displays a desirable aged patina, lightly time worn commensurate with age. Silver ladle presents lightly aged, reflective tones with minimal tarnish. Select stocks to the turned handle with fine grain interest and deep caramel hues. Lovingly polished throughout the centuries, the hallmark semi-legible. Visible date letter and London assay mark, the 'S' mark for 1813. Reverse bears the engraved monogram 'F N S'. This is a charming antique toddy ladle, with an appealing aged appearance. Delivered ready to display.
