Description

A beautiful and original antique gilded bronze clock, with fine Sevres style porcelain. The porcelain has a turquoise background with finely painted cherubs on the clock face and a courting couple on the panel below. The side panels and the urn that sits aloft of the drum are painted with fine floral decoration. Makers Mark 'C.M & H'. The clock movement is mounted in a porcelain drum with a porcelain clock face, which stands on an elaborate and heavily modelled base with laurel leaves and large scrolls. To the sides are lion mask handles and an urn upon the top. English, 1880 Condition: Great Condition Dimensions: Overall Height 41 Cms x 25 Cms Width x 15 Cms Depth / Face 15 cms Diam
