Description

This Fine Quality 19thC Walnut Occasional Table displays some very refined features. Standing on long elegant Barley Twist Legs, leading down to a square shoulder that is veneered and crossbanded, and ending in beautifully shaped feet. The finely turned stretcher rails add further refinement, and the feet have a generous spread to them, aiding stability. The top is veneered in well chosen figured Walnut with a decorative cross banding. The Walnut timber is a delightful mellow warm hue, and this little table displays particularly good patination. An extremely useful and elegant table that could be used in so many areas of the home. Circa 19thC Dimensions Width 15½in/39cm Depth 12½in/32cm Height 29in/74cm
