Description

A really good early 18th Century Oak Dresser base with exceptionally bold and thick section square cut cabriole legs, nicely shaped freeze, great top and fabulous colour and patina throughout. The Dresser is In particularly good original condition with only the handles replaced. The drawer linings all original and made in Oak as are the lovely clean back boards. The back legs have also been made in especially thick section, adding to the strength and strong look of the piece. A Wonderful example of its type.
