Description

A George V era silver and bright blue guilloché enamel pill box with clear import marks for London 1928 and makers mark GS. The silver box has a guilloché enamel lid with at least 8 refined geometrical bands. The outer bands are a strong bright blue with some of the inner bands in a lighter slightly turquoise blue, the combination reflecting light in contrasting ways. The box is gilt lined and the hinge and catch work perfectly. Boxes of this quality were often imported from the Continent, and assayed as sterling silver with the London date mark, as here. The enamel work is delightful and the piece is in excellent condition.
