Description

You are viewing a gorgeous Victorian Davenport circa 1860 Burr Walnut with 4 Drawers to the side and a lift up pen holder on top. Finished with claret tooled leather acting as a writing surface. One side has all the drawers that open for more storage. This desk owes its name to a Captain Davenport who was the first to commission the design, from Gillows of Lancaster, near the end of the 18th century. We ship to every corner of the planet including with great discounts to the US - please get in touch for a shipping quote.
