Description

You are viewing an elegant pair of French antique side cabinets. Hopefully the photos illustrate the gorgeous details to this matching pair. Circa 1910, these would have been crafted by a Parisian ebeniste due to their high quality. The marquetry inlay is superb and all sides, largely of Chinese scenes and figures. The colours to the inlay are also very bright and eye catching including reds, greens and browns. Construction is from satinwood and kingwood. To the top features a well cast brass gallery. The cabinet top opens by an ingenious slat system which folds behind the cubby holes. The mechanism is smooth and efficient. Features elegant cabriole legs and all ormolu mounts are original. Bought from a dealer on the Marche Biron at Paris antiques markets. We can ship to anywhere in the world. Offered in great shape ready for home use right away.
