Description

You are viewing a wonderful monumental bronze and gilt mantle clock Circa 1820 with a silk suspension movement - this is when the pendulum is suspended from a silk thread which in turn is connected to a small adjustment wheel. Features a semi-nude bronze male with a pair of rams. The casting is very intricate, check out details like the feet and fingers. Classical bronze base with marble inserts. Bought from a dealer on Marche Biron at Paris antiques markets. Viewings available by appointment. Offered in great shape ready for home use right away. We ship to every corner of the planet - please get in touch for a shipping quote.
