Description

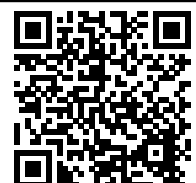

This pair of 16th century oak panels was removed from an Oxford College during restoration many years ago. The gothic tracery is finely carved and the colour is rich and deep. There are some losses, this is commensurate with age and is clearly shown in the photographs. The historic woodworm has been thoroughly treated. These panels have been in a private collection for over sixty years. c. 1570 Code; CMT 04 Height: 18.5" 47 cm Width: 6.5" 17 cm
