Description

A hugely impressive vintage diamond cluster ring. This pleasingly hefty piece - weighing a touch under 14 grams - features a bombé shaped centre panel set with 23 natural round brilliant cut diamonds organised in three rows, encased in a 'buckle' shaped surround. The gold is a really unusual blush colour, a softer version of modern rose gold which can (to our eyes) be a little too coppery. Accompanied by a diamond grading report from IGR. Cut: Round brilliant cuts. Colour: The diamonds range from G to I. Clarity: The diamonds range from VS2 to SI1. All are clean to the naked eye. Carat: 1.58 carat total. Circa: 1965. Size: O (UK) or 7 (US). Free sizing available. Measurements: The face of the ring, including the gold border, is 23.0 x 17.9mm. Sits 7.4mm from the finger. Weight: 13.96 grams. Metal: The main body of the ring an unusual colour of gold with sits between yellow and rose. It is 18k gold in purity, tested with a Niton DXL Precious Metal Analyzer.
