Description

Technical Description An exceptional pair of 19th century glass wine carafes dating to c1870. They have applied neck rings with different engraved ferns around the upper bowl and petal moulding to the lower bowl, leading to a polished pontil. Each Carafe holds 700ml to the base of the neck ring so almost a bottle of wine. Good period glass wine carafes are becoming increasingly difficult to find. Date & Origin England, c1870 Condition Excellent, no chips, cracks or restoration. Clean and clear internally. Dimensions Height: 17cm Diameter: 13cm

Internal Ref: 2025021401
