Description

A Pair Late 19thC Hammered Brass Trays with African Animal Motifs attr Newlyn School 40cm c1880. A superbly stylish pair of Arts and Crafts, hammered brass, late 19th century trays attributed to Newlyn, apparently unsigned, each featuring a native African repousse impressed animal, a lion and a springbok whilst showing a magnificent patination. An expertly crafted, associated pair of trays, measuring apx 40cm square with an elegant, timeworn patina, each displaying the repousse, reverse impression of native African wild animals, possibly a springbok and a lion. We are attributing these to Newlyn, TBV, the style, quality and period suggest so and at some point these have been fixed with a plaster type product to the rear which may conceal a makers stamp. A wonderful pair of decorative, antique trays, both fine examples of Arts and Crafts. Dimensions Apx 40cm square Please request more photos and any questions invited. Free collection from Lewes, East Sussex. Dispatched U.K. and worldwide within 2-3 working days with tracking.
