Description

A Regency mahogany drum top library table. The circular top is inlaid with dark green tooled leather and has four working drawers and four dummy drawers. The drawers all have their original turned brass knobs. The central turned pillar culminates with triform legs and original lion paw brass castors. This is a lovely original piece in very good condition with a good patina. Circa 1810-1820. We can discuss delivery options here in UK. Payment by bank transfer, PayPal or card via phone.
