Description

This exquisite Victorian walnut writing table, once cherished by a lady, beautifully captures the elegance and craftsmanship of its era. The rich, burr walnut, with its lustrous finish, highlights the intricate details and distinctive style typical of Victorian design. Featuring two spacious drawers for storing stationery and writing essentials, the table ensures functionality alongside its aesthetic appeal. One of the drawers prominently showcases the stamp of 'Holland & Sons,' symbolizing quality and prestige. More than just a practical piece of furniture, this writing table serves as a timeless artifact, inviting one to envision the correspondence and creativity it once fostered. It stands as a stunning testament to the artistry of its time, enriching any room with its enchanting presence and rich history. Holland and Sons Antique Furniture (1803 – 1942) were extremely good cabinet makers and they specialised in fine quality furniture. Holland and Sons were founded in 1803 by William Holland and by the middle of the 19th century, they were one of the main competitors to the furniture makers Gillow.
