Description

English 18th Century Antique Original Painted Pine Side Table A beautiful, English 18th century antique pine side table, still in the original off white painted finish with faint original line decorations. A lovely model having an unusual shaped top that allows easier access to the original brass swan neck handles on the two drawer fronts. Both the drawers are finely dovetailed and run well. All in excellent strong condition, stands well on square tapering legs. This is a larger model of Georgian antique side table so would work well as a writing table and desk too. English and dating to around 1780.
