Description

This is an antique supper table. An English, mahogany tilt-top circular table, dating to the Regency period, circa 1820. Superb proportion with a beautifully presented finish. Displays a desirable aged patina and in good order. Select stock present fine grain interest throughout. Resplendent in excellent caramel hues. Wide circular top arranged with a knee-hole height of 71cm (28"). Quality brass sliding clasp articulates the tilting mechanism. Delightful cabriole legs with broad knees and excellent hairy paw feet. Riding smoothly upon a trio of brass castors. This is a striking antique supper table, presenting wonderful colour and attractive figuring. Versatile and elegant, with comfortable proportion for family breakfasts or light lunches. Solid joints and construction, delivered ready for the home.
