Description

~~ Excellent original condition throughout ~~ This is a beautiful example of a silver plated Victorian striking carriage alarm clock dated to around 1900. It has a stunning silver plated case with a shaped fold down handle, it is in excellent condition, bright and clean and there is absolutely no rubbing to the silver plating its in perfect condition. The movement is of very high quality and has its original platform escapement, it runs for a full 8 days and keeps excellent time. It strikes on the hours and half hours and the alarm functions correctly. All of the glass panels are perfect with no cracks or chips. The movement is in excellent clean and running condition having just undergone a complete and comprehensive overhaul by Alan Williams of Plymouth Clocks who is a fellow of the British Horological Institute so you can be assured that this clock will give trouble free service for many many years before requiring any further attention. A beautiful high quality and rather rare victorian striking carriage clock in wonderful condition which will give great pleasure for many years to come. This clock has obviously been highly prized and looked after over the las...
