Description

An exceptional, fine and impressive, rare antique Edwardian pin cushion modelled in the form of a rhinoceros; an addition to our animal related silverware collection. This exceptional, fine and impressive antique Edwardian sterling silver pin cushion has been realistically modelled in the form of a rhinoceros. The hallmarked sterling silver body of this antique silver pin cushion is embellished with embossed decoration reproducing the details of the rhino's anatomical features and skin folds. The rhino's back is fitted with an oval cushion, lined with replacement green velvet. The side of the mammal bears the registration number 'RD528848', in addition to the full hallmarks. Such examples are rare and becoming increasingly difficult to locate. The sterling silver rhino pin cushion is a unique and finely crafted gift, ideal for sewing enthusiasts, antique collectors or admirers of whimsical silverware. Both functional and decorative, it serves as a distinctive keepsake or statement piece. Condition This antique silver rhino pin cushion is an excellent gauge of silver, excellent quality and in excellent condition. Full hallmarks struck to the side of the body are all...
