Description

CIRCLE OF JOHN OPIE (1761 - 1807) PORTRAIT OF A YOUNG MAN. Fine 19th century portrait of young gentleman by an artist in the circle of John Opie (1761 - 1807). The handsome and elegant young sitter is depicted half-length in front of a sky and cloud background and he wears the elegant attire of young gentleman of the period namely a black jacket and waistcoat and a white cravat. His hair is natural and windblown. With his eyes cast downward as if lost in thought, the attractive sitter is sensitively rendered, making this a most attractive evocation of childhood. In a good state of conservation and ready to frame and enjoy, this work may benefit from a light clean but presents very well as is. Measures: 20 inches wide x 24 inches high (unframed)
