Description

This pleasing art deco bronze was made in France circa 1930 and depicts a Russian borzoi hunting dog leaping into the air to jump over a fence. It has been well captured by the sculptor with good detail throughout. It has a darkish green patination and is stamped bronze on the flank. This decorative figure group is mounted and displayed onto a mixed marble base which consists of a cream marble platform raised onto a black and cream veined base with a central inset green marble tablet which displays this art deco bronze to great advantage. Height 25cm x width 36cm x depth 11.5cm
