Description

A charming antique snooker scoreboard, crafted by Orme & Sons of Manchester. Made from rich mahogany, this piece embodies the superior craftsmanship and timeless elegance associated with Orme & Sons, a renowned manufacturer of high-quality billiard and snooker equipment. The scoreboard features two sliding scoring panels with hand-painted gilt numbering on a black background, allowing players to keep track of their points with ease. The upper row is marked in increments of 20, ranging from 20 to 100, while the lower row displays numbers from 1 to 20. Each row is operated using turned wooden sliders with brass pointers, ensuring smooth and precise adjustments. At the center the maker's name, "Orme & Sons, Manchester," signifying its authenticity and prestige. The scoreboard is framed by a molded mahogany surround with a stepped cornice and a sturdy base, designed for wall mounting with brass fixtures. With its rich wood tones, intricate detailing, and practical functionality, this antique snooker scoreboard is a perfect addition to any billiards room, collector's display, or vintage-inspired interior. A true piece of sporting history, it captures the elegance and comp...
