Description

An elegant set of three birdseye maple frames enclosing a set of thirty five plaster Grand Tour intaglios dating from the early 19th Century. The various large oval and round plaster intaglios feature subjects predominantly from Classical Antiquity and include the 1831 coronation, Romulus and Remus, Apollo, a bust of the Duchess of Berry, Pan, various busts animals and others. The intaglios are beautifully mounted on plush brown fabric in rectangular glazed box frames. Add a beautiful classical element to your home with this delightful framed collection. Condition: In excellent condition, please see photos for confirmation.
