Description

Superb quality solid oak table with ebonised stringing and stylised carved lozenge decoration with incised gilding. The lower shelf has a gallery with ebonised spindles. The top rotates to allow the fold over leaf to be used as a card table. It retains its original baize surface with usage marks but no holes or tears. The table has its original porcelain castors. The table is typical of the Manchester school but surprisingly for an item of this quality has no maker's mark. Size when opened 82 by 95 cm.
