Description

19th century side cabinet French nightstand, bedside table, circa 1890-1900. A well constructed and sturdy French walnut bedside cupboard with single drawer, one door and intact variegated marble top. Standing on four carved cabriole legs, this nightstand is embellished by various details from the apron which connects to the legs to the quartered veneer on the door and left and right sides. Condition: sturdy and general good conditions commensurate with age and use with old dead wood worm signs in places.
