Description

This antique cabinet, made by Anderson Bros. (Shopfitters) Ltd. in Sunderland, dates back to the 1920s. Constructed from high-quality oak, it features a stunning glazed front with brass handles and original label holders, indicative of its use in a shop or office setting. The sliding glass doors and tiered shelving provide a practical yet elegant design, perfect for displaying and organizing items. With its rich patina and meticulous craftsmanship, this cabinet exudes vintage charm and history, making it a fantastic piece for collectors or those looking to add an authentic touch of early 20th-century British craftsmanship to their space.
