Description

Outstanding Victorian snap-top table masterfully crafted from solid walnut. The oval top showcases a remarkable matched quartered veneer, adorned with intricate string inlay detailing. The table stands elegantly on four gracefully shaped supports, culminating in finely carved figures of stylized fish or dolphins at the base. The striking grain of the walnut veneers is a testament to the expertise of a highly skilled cabinet maker. Not only is this table practical for use, but its tilt-top design allows for convenient storage in a room corner, where its striking top will continue to look stunning. It is an excellent representation of Victorian craftsmanship, comfortably seating four for an intimate dinner party. This piece is a superb representation of Victorian craftsmanship, seamlessly combining beauty, utility, and heritage. The table measures 168cm high and 83 cm deep when tilted up
