

SA1131392

Rare Victorian Diamond Point Heraldic Engraved Glass Rummer c1847

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA1131392*Date of manufacture: Victorian

Dimensions

Height = 13 cm (5.1")

Description

Technical Description An exceptional diamond point engraved 19th century glass Rummer dating to c1847. It has four versions of the Royal Coat of Arms, engraved in extremely fine diamond point, around the bowl, with the initials MBR and the date 1847. Also, a poem in diamond point which states, 'May those to whom this glass belongs, Light trials meet if any, Their hours of gloom, may they be few, Their sunny memento mori London 2nd Feb 1847 Memento mori is Latin for "remember that you have to die". It also has what looks like a verse from the bible in very small fine diamond point. Capstan stem and conical foot which is engraved with Oak leaves and Acorns on the underside. Comments We have been told that the engravings were by a gentleman called Thomas Sutherland but I'm afraid we can't tell you anything more about this very talented gentleman. Date & Origin England, c1847. Condition Excellent, no chips cracks or restoration. Dimensions Height: 13.2 cm Rim diameter: 8.8 cm Foot: 8 cm

Internal Ref: 2025011515

Seller Details

Exhibit Antiques

Glasgow Scotland United Kingdom

Tel: 01501 228 282

International Tel: +44 1501 228 282

