Description

A fine quality George III flame mahogany 8 day longcase clock by the eminent maker John Barwise of London. The high quality London case, veneered in beautifully figured flame mahogany of excellent colour and patination, constructed on a solid oak carcass. The break arch hood surmounted with three gilded ball finials, below canted stop fluted corners. The circular glass bound with a cast brass bezel. The hood sides with moulded circular glass viewing windows. The moulded edge long trunk door with choice curled mahogany veneers, flanked by quarter turned reed columns terminating with wooden doric capitals. The moulded edge panel to the base with shaped London style double plinth and pad feet. The 12" circular silvered and engraved brass dial signed Barwise, London to the centre, with subsidiary calendar and seconds zones. The fully restored eight-day duration movement is of the highest quality. The plates are united by five knopped pillars, fine wheel work and anchor escapement, striking the hours on a single bell, with strike / strike silent facility. The clock is complete with its original brass cased weights and heavy brass bob pendulum with gilded wooden r...
