Description

A charming book or linen press dating from the early 19th Century. The press itself has a wooden winding handle and large wooden screw. It is mounted to a table base with one drawer with turned wooden knobs and it stands on simple square tapering legs. It is very well made and in good original condition with a lovely patina. There are general signs of age and use, some marks and light knocks but no major damages. There are two small burn marks in the support above the press where presumably a candle has been left for too long but it isn't detrimental and this has all helped to develop a beautiful patina. The press itself moves up and down smoothly and the whole piece is strong and sturdy. It has been given a clean and a wax and is ready for the home. Approximate Measurements: Height : 54" / 137cm (wound down) Width : 27" / 69cm Depth : 17 3/4" / 45cm The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
