Description

A beautifully proportioned 19th-century side table, boasting an impressive, distinctive profile and exquisite material pairings. Its elegant scale and highly detailed design make it an unforgettable choice for an inviting hallway corner, living room, or a well-lit library space. The table is defined by its striking exotic specimen veneered top, which showcases a mesmerising arrangement of rare materials and intricate geometric artistry. The vibrant, contrasting tones of the patterned surface pair beautifully with the understated elegance of the sturdy oak base, offering both exceptional versatility and a sophisticated touch of historic charm to the room. The piece is in excellent showroom condition. It has been beautifully preserved and is ready for immediate use and placement in the home. Dimensions: * Height - 73.5cm * Diameter - 40.5cm
