Description

A good example of a large solid Sterling silver spoon. It is good quality and weighs approximately 57g. It is fully hallmarked for Newcastle, 1829 and a maker's mark for M.W. It is in very good condition with clear hallmarks. There are no major damages and it displays well. There are some faint surface marks and a few light dinks but nothing detrimental. Approximate Measurements : Length : 8 3/4" / 22cm Bowl : 8cm x 4.5cm The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
