Description

A rare Barr, Flight and Barr Worcester cabinet cup, cover and stand, circa 1805-10. Of goblet shape with angular handles, the domed cover with an urn finial, finely painted probably by John Barker with a panel with two shells and coral amongst colourful seaweed within a wide gilt border, reserved on a salmon ground richly gilt with stylised oak leaves, foliate scrolls and rosettes, gold vermiculé and a 'Greek key' border above the foot, 15.8cm high overall, impressed crowned BFB marks, printed mark with Coventry St address. Provenance Charles Dawson Collection Illustrated by Charles Dawson, Worcester Flight & Barr Porcelain (2023), p.127, fig.11.14. A Flight and Barr example of this form, marked with incised B marks and painted with feathers was sold by Bonhams on 12 September 2007, lot 231. Condition: Professional restoration to a break through the finial, one handle restored and a break through the front section of the cup.
