

SA1131876

Beautiful and Original Pair of Biedermeier Armchairs c. 1830

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA1131876*Date of manufacture: Regency

Description

A pair of superb quality club armchairs with beautiful maple wood frames of superb colour and with lovely natural chatoyancy. . The face of each arm inlaid with leaves in ebony, walnut and bleeding heart. From a good house, these chairs have recently been upholstered in a lovely gold and cream heavyweight fabric, with wide deep seats and supportive backs these chairs are relaxing and spacious. . The colour of the wood is rich and vibrant and the framing is all original without worm or repairs. The fabric is without marks or wear. . In excellent condition for age and of a lovely linear design, these chairs are extremely stylish and eye catching and are extremely comfortable. . Very heavy and robust, fantastic quality, and in superb original condition. . There is a matching sofa and four matching Regency dining chairs available on separate listings. I really hope that this set can stay together and am happy to offer a discount should you wish to purchase as a set. . Dimensions are: . Each chair is 30.5 inches wide, 25.5 inches deep and 33.5 inches high. Floor to seat is 17 inches. . For metric please multiply by 2.5

Seller Details

Webberley Antiques

East Sussex United Kingdom By appointment only.

Tel: 07765 233266

International Tel: +44 7765 233266