Description

We are delighted to offer this antique Victorian 15K gold brooch. The brooch features a wonderful design of a crescent shape with a three-leaf clover accent in the middle. The crescent is intricately embellished with 9 cabochon turquoise stones and 8 seeded pearls, all matching very well in colour and tapering in size. The brooch features a gold 'c-clasp' on the reverse side. Pearl is known to be the birthstone of June and turquoise for December. A very special gift to a lucky individual or as an indulging gift to oneself. Perfect for wearing on special occasions and a conversation starter for antique jewellery lovers and those with an eye for classical elegance. Ideal for a single statement piece or with additional turquoise jewels. The brooch is antique and unmarked but tests as 15K gold.
