Description

We are delighted to offer this exquisite 18ct gold & platinum brooch made c.1920. The brooch features a wonderful two-tone mount with the rear portion being gold and the front panel featuring a chic and dazzling platinum white mount. Three pearls are set in the middle of the brooch with the centre pearl being an absolutely delightful pink pearl with hints of iridescent hues. Furthermore, an array of old-cut dazzling rose cut diamond contrast the pink very nicely whilst blending in seamlessly with the fine platinum mount. A statement piece and a discerning choice for jewellery lovers, unique and distinguished from contemporary pieces and a conversation starter. The pin is unmarked, however, we have fully tested it to be 18ct gold/platinum. The brooch comes with its storage box which is of the same period. Size & Total Weight 4.8cm Pin 2cm x1.1cm Pin Head 4.78g /0.15 oz t Condition: Great antique condition with no major issues/damage. There is possibly some old solder reinforcement on the joint between the pin and the rear of the amethyst mount. We aim to overemphasize and state these issues to avoid disappointment and thus please rest assured they are not ...
