Description

An early 20th-century chest of drawers, showcasing classic proportions and refined craftsmanship. This well-balanced piece features a two-over-three drawer configuration, offering ample storage while maintaining an elegant silhouette. The figured walnut veneer is complemented by decorative brass escutcheons and handles, adding a touch of understated ornamentation. Resting on shaped bracket feet, the chest retains a timeless appeal suited to both traditional and contemporary interiors. Carefully restored and polished, this piece remains in excellent condition, preserving its character while ensuring durability for years to come.
