Description

A fairly crude sword stick originating either from the Middle East (possibly Egyptian) or the Indian sub continent. The crude animal head hardwood handle has turquoise eyes connected to a steel blade etched with what looks like Arabic script and the outlines of a fishing boat, the haft is covered in leather or leathercloth and ends in a very chunky steel ferrule. If you know anything more about this stick, please let me know. Size: Length - 34" (86.5cm) Blade Length - 28.5" (72.5cm)

Internal Ref: 40032
