Description

A Regency Triple Plate Mirror, 135cm, Neoclassical Motifs, C1820 Later Painted. A fine quality early 19th century, Regency period neoclassical triple plate Overmantle mirror C1820-1830, later painted white. An elegant neoclassical theme, triple plate mirror measuring 135cm with ornate neoclassical carved wood motifs with a pronounced central shell, later professionally painted white sometime during the early to mid 20th century. A handsome mirror of excellent scale and proportions, featuring its original mirror plate and whilst it shows evidence of a gentle timeworn appeal, it otherwise presents in very good original condition. A versatile mirror of considerable decorative appeal, an interior design mirror that can complement a classic or contemporary space, hallway, day rooms, kitchen family room, cloakroom or bathrooms etc., a very nice thing with a subdued, chalk white paint. Dimensions Width 135cm Height 70cm Whilst it sits well upon a mantelpiece, it also has a wall hanging fixing. Please request more photos and any questions invited.
