Description

British Oil Painting Animal Portrait Prized Lurcher Greyhound After Samuel John Carter. Impress your clients & guests with this animal statement masterpiece in your office or home wall space. Title "Study Of A Lurcher Greyhound Dog After of Samuel John Carter". In the influenced style after Samuel John Carter. Subject portrait in full side profile view of a lurcher greyhound, standing proudly on a field pathway in summer countryside during the afternoon. With tall green grass on either flank, views of golden fields in the distance. The dog has his head turned he is looking directly at the viewer with cute wide open eyes. He has a short light brown white coat. Above light blue sky with mixed white and grey clouds. A nice display size with the frame being 34.5 cm high and 44.5 cm wide. You will the different colour hues. Oil on canvas. Initial signed by the British artist J Warnes. Circa 1910 early 20th century. Set in a recent decorative Larson Julh Gold leaf spoon profile design frame, which enhances this work even further. In our opinion this is very fine example of the animal breed. Lurcher is a crossbred dog resulting from mating a greyhound or other sighthound with a d...
