Description

A good example of a small sterling silver bowl with an intricate pierced design on the sides, a flared rim and two small scrolling handles. It is stylish and good quality, weighing approximately 165g. It is clearly hallmarked for London, 1910 and the maker Crichton Bros. It is in good condition for its age with no major damages. There are some faint surface marks and a couple of light scratches on the base, some minor dinks here and there but nothing detrimental or untoward. It has been gently cleaned and polished and displays beautifully.
