Description

A good quality antique silver mustard pot with its original blue glass liner and associated silver spoon. It stands on three feet with a square handle and a hinged lid. It is good quality and the silver weighs approximately 77g without the liner. It is hallmarked for Birmingham, 1934 and the maker A.E.Poston. It is in very good condition for its age. There are some minor signs of age and use, some faint surface marks and a few small dinks but nothing detrimental. There is no damage to the glass liner. It has been lightly cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
