Description

Georgian style! This is a very special piece of furniture that the photographs really don't do justice to. An absolutely delightful early 19th century mahogany chest of drawers in exceptional condition. Original condition. This elegant, classic chest features a moulded top edges and pillared side decoration. The chest has two short and three long drawers with brass swan neck handles. The chest is supported on elegant ogee feet. The polished surfaces of the chest have developed a lovely rich patina from years of use and cleaning. This is a great quality piece that has provided a useful storage solution for many years and is sure to outlast its modern competitors. Please see the other antique furniture we have listed.
