Description

A wonderful quality piece of antique furniture! This is a truly exceptional piece in stunning original condition. This lovely early Victorian secretaire bookcase cabinet is a prime example of excellent, top quality 19th century craftsmanship. This was made for a very wealthy individual when new. The cabinet features a moulded cornice over two glazed doors which open to a shelved interior. The base section features a superb secretaire drawer with a drop down front and an interior with central pigeonholes and small satinwood veneered drawers. Beneath the secretaire drawer are two panelled doors which open to a shelved interior and the whole piece is supported on a plinth base. This is a wonderful piece furniture that is both practical and beautiful. Please see the other antique furniture we have listed.
