

SA1132907

Rare Antique Moser Enamelled Decanter, Six Glasses and Tray, Glass by Salviati c1900

Price

GBP 2,200

| USD $2,999 | EUR 2,567

Item Reference: SA1132907Date of manufacture: Victorian

Dimensions

Height = 22 cm (8.7")

Description

Technical Description A magnificent Italian Salviati glass spirit decanter with six matching shot glasses and its original drinks tray, dating to c1900. Beautifully enamelled by Moser in the "Canine and Foliate" pattern with light green vines with yellow, white, blue and orange flowers with white running dogs around the middle. The glassware was manufactured by Salviati Dott on the island of Murano and then sent to Bohemia to be enamelled at the Moser workshop. You can see examples in 'Moser Artistic Glass' by Gary Baldwin on page 120 (the book can still be purchased online). The spirit decanter is conical with its original enamelled stopper and gilded rim, the six glasses and tray having the same decoration and gilding. Stunning antique period glassware, exceptionally rare to find such a complete set. Date & Origin Italy, c1900 Condition Excellent, no chips, cracks or restoration. Minor loss of gilt. Dimensions Decanter Height: 22 cm (includes stopper) Decanter Diameter : 10 cm Shot Glass Height : 5 cm Tray Diameter : 21.5 cm

Internal Ref: 2025022301

Seller Details

Exhibit Antiques

Glasgow Scotland United Kingdom

Tel: 01501 228 282

International Tel: +44 1501 228 282