Item Reference: SA1132934

Date of manufacture: 1930

Description

This rose gold ring is in very good condition. The shank is a plain band that flares out with ornate reeded decoration at the shoulders to join the central rose gold square setting, framed with white gold and enhanced with fine engraving. At the centre, there is a diamond held in place with a star shaped setting. The ring is fully hallmarked for Birmingham 1930-31. Together with a maker's mark KBSP and a series of registration numbers for the ring design. The ring size is S, and it comes with its original box, which shows some signs of age related wear.
