Description

This is a heavy antique church alter board with gothic design and carved wood detailing in the form of flowers and scrolling leaves. It has what appears to be the original paint to the back as well as heavy metal hangers and has been more recently overpainted on the front. This would make a great display board or advertising frame for a business or a fab menu board in a pub or restaurant for showcasing menus or messages in a unique way. The panel measures 128 cms high 84 cms wide and 12 cms deep. UK insured packing and delivery is £25
