Description

A stunning, fine and impressive vintage platinum set 2.74 carat diamond ring with trillion cut side stones; part of our vintage diamond engagement ring collections. This stunning, fine and impressive vintage diamond solitaire ring has been crafted in platinum. The pierced decorated setting displays a stunning feature four-claw set 2.14ct transitional modern brilliant round cut diamond. The feature diamond is flanked on either side by an impressive claw set trillion cut diamond, totalling 0.60 carats. The elevated, tapering ring shoulders integrate with the setting and blend seamlessly with the plain hallmarked ring shank. This 1950s engagement ring is hallmarked to the interior shank with the maker's mark (MG) and the platinum mark (PLAT). This impressive three stone ring is supplied with a European Diamond Report (EDR) certificate for the feature diamond, in addition to an IDGL diamond grading report card for the supporting diamonds. A 2.14-carat vintage diamond solitaire ring is a classic and refined choice, perfect for engagements, milestone anniversaries or a cherished future heirloom. Its vintage character, paired with the brilliance of its timeless design, makes it a truly special piece.
